F O R E W O R D

As the years go by, we shall always be able to turn through this book and recall with the fondest of memories our Senior year at Southwest. This portrayal of memories is rather difficult to do as these are an association not only of incidents but of beliefs and hopes which have different meanings to each of us. PEEP 'N TOM will cover their assignment as photographer and reporter as we re-live with them some of our favorite memories.

MISS MARY WINTERBOTTOM

Mary Winterbottom

Miss Mary Winterbottom represents to us the ideals and the friendliness of Southwest High School. She has endeared herself to the faculty and to the student body through her loyalty and her sincere devotion to us and to our school.

The Senior Class proudly dedicates the 1954 edition of the Resume' to Miss Mary Winterbottom.

MUSIC

Southwest takes great pride in its Music Department. These various musical organizations seem to "say it with music" most effectively.

The Advanced Chorus is a group of girls chosen from the tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grades. During the year they participate in a Christmas pageant, regional contests, a spring concert, assembly programs, and PTA programs. The chorus holds superior ratings from both the District and State music festivals.

ADVANCED

BOYS' GLEE CLUB

BEGINNERS' CHORUS

The Beginning Chorus is composed of girls who have not had any musical training other than eighth grade general music. Most of the girls are preparing to sing in the Advanced Chorus next year.

CHORUS

Mrs. Jeannine Jones is our capable music director. She seems to always have a "Song in Her Heart." Under her leadership the Choruses and Glee clubs have made excellent progress.

I can still appreciate it!

MRS. JEANNINE JONES
Director

What a thrilling spectacle our Band has grown to be! The aim of the Band is to enrich the students' lives by increased appreciation and enjoyment of music. This is achieved through performance of the various types of music from football marches to heavy concert music. While acquiring skill in playing an instrument, the band member also learns valuable methods as well as self-discipline which can be applied to any other phase of modern living.

MR. KRAUSE

BAND

Since Mr. Krause has become director of our orchestra and band, both have grown in popularity and in excellence of performance. Our band won a superior rating in the State last year.

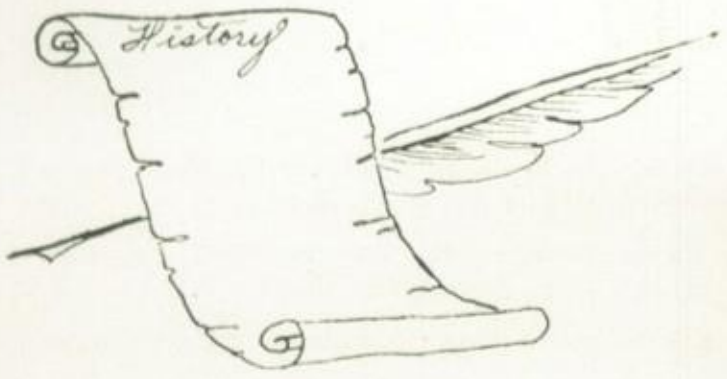
MISS RESUMÉ

Kay Bond

Mr. and Miss Resume'
1953-54

A popular new feature which was added to our yearbook last year was the choosing of a Mr. and Miss Resumé from our Senior class. This is one of the highest honors that a Senior boy or girl can win. They are chosen on the basis of dependability, popularity, participation in school activities, personal appearance and school spirit.

This year our class chose Wally and Kay as the two who most truly represent the spirit and ideals of our Senior class. Congratulations, both!



CLASS HISTORY

What a happy sojourn at Southwest we have had! We, the present senior class, felt four years ago that we were the pioneers of a school that one day would be outstanding. We knew, of course, that there had been other good classes, but we felt that certainly there could have been none quite like ours. And we sincerely believe that we have had no reason during our four years here to change our minds. Ours has been a happy, co-operative, and successful class.

When we were freshmen, we looked up to the upper classmen in our new school and thought that they must be the most wonderful people anywhere. Our one burning ambition was to become seniors ourselves, and now we have reached that goal. We have had a pleasant time together attaining this, although at times the going has seemed rugged. We feel that the inspiration and the guidance of our wonderful teachers have been largely responsible for our success. To us the years have sped by all too fast.

Many honors have come to our school and to our class during these years. One of the most exciting has been for us to see our Girls' Basketball team, after hovering near the top of our city league for a time, at last attain the City League and Regional championship. The tireless efforts of the coach as well as the splendid backing of our student body has been an inspiration to all. Our own Dolores Waits has been top scorer of points this season in the city. Then, we have seen our Cross Country team make a creditable showing as well as our other teams of which the seniors are an important part.

We have a very active Beta Club of which 28 seniors are a part, and this year we have had the pleasure of organizing a National Honor Society. We are extremely proud of these two organizations.

We have seen our Student Council grow into an organization which is very vital to our school life and our Student Court develop into one that we feel is outstanding in our school system. This court has proved to all that we students are capable, with guidance, of fostering good discipline, together with a splendid school spirit, within our student body.

We have had a part in making our school paper, The Howl, a popular edition; we have sponsored happily the editing of our yearbook, The Resumé, and struggled tirelessly in selling the ads which make the book possible. Besides these activities we have taken an active part in clubs, school programs, and contests that have been available to us. And, of course, we have found one of our greatest thrills in the presentation of our Senior play.

As Juniors we sponsored the Junior-Senior Prom which was a great event in our lives and as Seniors we have had an even greater and more thrilling experience in our own Senior Dance. We shall never forget this dance nor our mixed emotions—the thrill of graduation, the sound of the beautiful music, the rhythm of the dance as well as the realization that this was the end of something we had grown to love. No more carefree high school days!

This is only a sketchy resumé of a few of the activities we shall remember. There are scores of others. As we say goodbye to Southwest, it is with a feeling of regret; however, it is a thrill to us to realize that we shall soon be assuming new responsibilities in the colleges we shall attend, in the business world which we shall enter, or in other fields that await us. It was grand being here, and we pledge that by our future activity this class of '54 shall bring nothing but honor to Southwest High.
